I celebrate and shamelessly advertise!!!

Welcome! to the director's cut of my newsletter. You know, or should know by now, I'm dyslexic. Relax. Put away your red pen. Sit a bit, let's chat and spend a few minutes together.

Kathryn's Beach and High Tide and Storm Surge are available NOW.

Writing News Briefs:

Is there enough demand to write a fourth Kathryn's book? It would be years later when she was 45-ish or older. It would be away from the beach and titled, Beyond Beaches.

With the tight fisted spending we're all doing (me too), I'm not sure there is enough demand for literary fiction to justify the cost of publishing another book in Kathryn's series.

What do you think? Should there be more about Kathryn? Do you enjoy the literary style? Email me. (Note new email address)

Cactus Rain Publishing News Briefs:

The big news is that the Cactus Rain Publishing website launched this week.

A boutique publisher of fine fiction from around the world.

The novels are written in British or American English. Cactus Rain has three authors in its starting lineup.

The first author is Glyn Pope from France who has written his third novel, The Doctor, The Plutocrat, and The Mendacious Minister. The story is historical fiction set in post WWII England.

The second author is Nidhi Dhawan from India. Her book is titled The Banyan Tree Brothers. This is a debut novel for Nidhi. It is the story of two boys in a remote village in India who love each other like brothers; one is Hindi, one is Muslim.

Our third author is also a publisher, Asmaa Kadry, from the United Arab Emirates. Her book, A Message of Love, will be the first bilingual book for Cactus Rain (Arabic/American English).

I am proud of these books and will be looking for others to join them. My books are tossed into the mix to represent the US. There will be many wonderful books to come. When you're looking for a new author to read, think of Cactus Rain Publishing as your source of fine fiction from around the world.
